Our Founder

Our Founder. Our Father.

Al-Madeenah Islamic Society is a charitable organisation founded in 1972 by our beloved father, Hadhrat Maulana Ashraf Ali Sikder رحمه الله عليه, whose vision, generosity, and deep commitment to Islamic values inspired generations.

He dedicated his life to supporting mosques, madrasahs, and humanitarian causes, especially in some of the most deprived areas. Through his tireless efforts, countless people benefited from essential support, education, and a strengthened connection to their faith.

Today, Al'hamdulillāh we are honoured to continue his legacy. Guided by his principles and driven by our shared responsibility to serve, Al-Madeenah Islamic Society continues to support the most needy people in southern Bangladesh. From building and maintaining mosques and madrasahs, to providing clean water, food aid, education, and medical support, our projects are rooted in compassion, dignity, and long-term impact.

With every initiative, we remember the foundations our father laid — and with every life uplifted, we pray it adds to the sadaqah jariyah of his noble efforts.

May Allah accept his work and ours, and enable us to do more for those who need it most. Ameen.

Where we work

Al-Madeenah Islamic Society provides humanitarian and welfare services to the disadvantaged individuals and communities primarily in the southern region of Bangladesh in the Barisal division.

Currently we are focusing our humanitarian work in the Patuakhali district. However, our aim is to expand our activities to other poverty-stricken areas around the world in the near future.

Patuakhali and Barguna are the most poverty-stricken districts in the country, as 69.2 per cent people in the Southern districts are absolute poor and have to live on less than 2122 Kcal calorie a day, a Bangladesh Bureau of Statistics (BBS) study said.

Shonakanda Baitullah Jami Masjid

Urgent Appeal

Shonakanda Baitullah Jami Masjid is located on an island in southern Bangladesh and has faced challenges due to harsh climate and land erosion. Initially built with temporary materials, it was repeatedly destroyed. In 2008, Hadhrat Mawlānā Sheikh Ashraf Ali Sikder (rahimahullāh) donated land and constructed the current masjid, though without a foundation due to erosion concerns. Thankfully, the erosion stopped, and the masjid has remained intact for 16 years. He also established a madrasah beside it, where around 150 students receive primary Islamic education.

Due to the lack of foundation, it has caused structural damages and we need to reconstruct the whole masjid.
